The Spirit of '76--the Youth of '76--How wonderful it would be if we could achieve and experience the spirit, the drive, the pride, the dignity of man's worth that created the spirit and gave birth to our nation in 1776.

Our nation is still in a state of growth and self-actualization--a nation struggling to find itself; a nation working to fit all the pieces--the trials, the struggles, the successes, the failures--of the past and present into one true unified whole.

Like our nation, we, the youth of '76, are still growing. Each of us must engage in his/her own private struggle if we are to reach the maturity and the self-actualization that must be our goal. We must live and go out into the world imbued with a spirit like the one which moved the colonists in 1776.

Although we in 1976 march to a different drummer, we, too, have to fit together the pieces of our own past and present--the knowledge, the values, the sorrows, the joys, the trials, the errors, the defeats and the successes--into a unified, freedom-loving, self-respecting whole.

The ideal condition
Would be, I admit, that men should be right by instinct.
But since we are all likely to go astray
The reasonable thing is to learn from those who can teach. — Sophocles —

L TO R: Mr. P. DiGiantomasso, Mr. R. Grady, Mr. C. Winter, Mr. Pelletier, Mr. R. Amoling. SITTING L TO R: Ms. M. Robbins, Mr. Kelter, Ms. J. Wright.

What can we say about a man who gave all he had to give? Pat D.'s dedication to the youth of our school community was complete--his contribution immeasurable. No words can ever express the deep grief we at K.P.H. feel at the loss of someone more than a school committee member, at the loss of our friend.

Our senior year... How much do we know? It would be rediculous to say that what we have learned could be put down on paper or tested. It is in us in the form of experiences--experiencing new ideas, successes and failures, love and friendships--over every second of the past four years.

In the future, we will all live new experiences and take on added responsibilities. But however broad our horizons may become, King Philip will have been our foundation for life.

IN MEMORIAM

William E. Grant
7/28/58 - 8/19/75

In the 1976 Edition of the Chieftain, we express our regret for the loss of a fine student, Billy Grant. His efforts in the automotive department of our school had proven to be substantial, and his work at the Wrentham State School will always be appreciated. The loss of one of K. P. 's finest students will be felt for many years.

Carole King

. . . to smile with

. . . to have fun with

. . . to wait with

. . . to talk with

. . . to pose with.

As the winged seeds of the dandilion grow together
to make a beautiful complexity,
So each of us grows and contributes to the community that is King Philip High School.

Eventually, the individuals, carried by the winds of chance, go out on their own to begin new lives.

Our time together is ending,
We have out-grown our limited surroundings.
Soon we must separate and begin new more independant lives.

On this final page of the 1976 Chieftain we would like to dedicate this yearbook to Mrs. Alice E. Church, our advisor. For more than ten years Mrs. Church has worked to make our Chieftain an award-winning publication.

No one could ever measure what she has done for us--not only in terms of physical accomplishments, but in day-to-day living. She gave of herself freely, to anyone with a need for it, without expecting anything in return. We came to her with our problems, knowing that someone would listen to us, never afraid of being turned away because she was "too busy."

The task of producing a yearbook is not a little thing, as anyone who has ever worked on the yearbook knows. Mrs. Church's first concern was always with the quality of the book we were creating. She was a perfectionist, she strived for the best, and she brought out the same qualities in everyone she worked with. Without her, we could never have produced this yearbook. We could never say thank you enough times or explain our appreciation; for truly, who can measure the value of a friend? We so dedicate this book... to a friend.
